

SANTA'S WORKSHOP

A letter from Santa

1 Candy Cane Lane · The North Pole

Dear _____ ,

The elves have been telling me all about you this year, and I have to say — I am very proud of you. Ho ho ho!

I've written your wishes in my big book, right next to your name. I can't promise what will be under the tree, but I promise I read every single one.

Here at the North Pole the elves are busy painting toys, Mrs. Claus is baking enough cookies for the whole workshop, and the reindeer are practicing their takeoffs for the big night.

Keep being kind, keep being brave, and don't forget to leave a carrot for the reindeer. Rudolph says hello!

With love and a big ho ho ho,

Santa Claus

P.S. Mrs. Claus says to drink your milk — and so do I.

Want Santa to call your child by name?
A live phone call from Santa who knows what they're proud of · mrclauscalls.com